

Eric S. Casher

Associate

Eric Casher is an associate in Howrey's Construction Litigation practice. He represents owners (public and private), developers, and general contractors in resolution of disputes relating to delays, cost over-runs, mechanic's liens, stop notices, and construction defects. He has experience in various stages of litigation from discovery to motion practice, as well as, involvement in mediation and arbitration. Additionally, Mr. Casher actively engages in pro bono work with experience advocating in the Northern District Court on behalf of clients with U.S.C. § 1983 civil rights claims.

Eric S. Casher

525 Market Street
Suite 3600
San Francisco, CA 94105-2708
t. +1 415.848.3246
f. +1 415.848.4999

CasherE@howrey.com

ADMISSIONS

California

EDUCATION

University of California, Hastings College of the Law (JD, 2006). ASUCH Student Leader of the Year, 2006; Best Oral Advocacy, Honorable Mention-Moot Court, Spring 2003; Vice President, Black Law Students Association

Hastings Race and Poverty Law Journal, Editor in Chief

University of California, Berkeley (BA with Honors , 2000)

COURTS & ADJUDICATIVE BODIES

- United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit
- United States District Court for the Northern District of California

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

- American Bar Association
- Bar Association of San Francisco, Vice Chair, Construction Barristers Group
- Charles Houston Bar Association

COMMUNITY SERVICE

- Coro Center for Civic Leadership: Board Member, 2008 to present
- Bar Association of San Francisco (BASF): Outstanding Volunteer in Public Service Award

PUBLICATIONS & SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

ARTICLES

"We Are All Going Green! A New Green Contract Addendum is Released." Kluwer Law International - Construction Law Blog (2010). Co-authored with Andrew D. Ness.

SPEECHES

"African American Political Progress and the Importance of Youth Participation in Electoral Politics." U.S. Speaker and Specialist Program (Namibia and Zambia), U.S. Department of State (2009).