

Laura A. Kamas

Associate

Laura Kamas is a member of Howrey's Construction practice. Ms. Kamas assists owners and general contractors at all stages of the construction process in both private and public projects. Her practice focuses on the resolution of complex construction disputes, including claims for non-payment, design errors, defective construction, and delay and impact. She has first-chaired matters in both arbitration and litigation and is experienced in discovery and motions practice. Ms. Kamas also has experience in insurance coverage litigation and advises clients concerning insurance and risk management issues. She has assisted clients in obtaining coverage under both Builders Risk and Commercial General Liability policies.

Laura A. Kamas

1299 Pennsylvania Ave NW
 Washington, DC 20004
 t. +1 202.383.7367
 f. +1 202.383.6610

KamasL@howrey.com

ADMISSIONS

District of Columbia
 Maryland

EDUCATION

The George Washington University Law School (JD, 2005), cum laude

The George Washington Law Review

University of Maryland (BA, 2002),
Phi Beta Kappa, summa cum laude,
University Honors Program

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

- Hunt Construction Group, Inc. Represented construction manager with respect to both claims and mechanic's liens brought by multiple subcontractors arising out of the construction of a hotel.
- Building Materials Corporation of America d/b/a GAF Materials Corporation. Represented owner and construction manager in litigation regarding the construction of an asphalt shingle manufacturing line.
- Forrester Construction Company. Represented general contractor with respect to contract and insurance claims brought by subcontractor regarding the construction of a library.
- James G. Davis Construction Corporation. Represented general contractor in litigation against both the owner and a project subcontractor with respect to both construction defect and insurance claims arising out of the construction of a restaurant.
- deMarne & Day, Inc. Represented contractor in arbitration against residential homeowner regarding failure to pay for completed work.