

Laura Thomson

Associate

Laura Thomson is a member of Howrey's Construction practice, focusing on insurance coverage and construction disputes. Ms. Thomson has represented public and private contractors in disputes in federal and state courts involving construction claims, insurance recovery, and performance bond claims. She assisted with two bid protests of government procurements.

Laura Thomson

1299 Pennsylvania Ave NW
Washington, DC 20004
t. +1 202.383.7386
f. +1 202.383.6610

ThomsonL@howrey.com

ADMISSIONS

District of Columbia
Maryland

EDUCATION

George Washington University
Law School (JD, 2007), *Thurgood
Marshall Scholar, with honors.*
Michael J. Avenatti Award for Excellence in Pre-Trial and Trial
Advocacy

University of Michigan (MS)

University of Michigan (MA)

University of Michigan (AB), with distinction

Ms. Thomson has also assisted in the briefing of five separate appeals to the 4th, 6th, 8th and DC Circuits. The three appeals that have been decided to date were resolved favorably.

Ms. Thomson began her career in the law in 2007 after more than a decade in documentary television.

PRO BONO

- Petitioned for asylum and U-Visa status; petitions pending.
- Successfully settled landlord/tenant dispute on behalf of tenant.

PUBLICATIONS & SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

BOOKS

Construction Law Handbook, International Dispute Resolution. Aspen Publishers (2009). Co-authored with Andrew D. Ness.